

I disagree with any change in the law that restricts or eliminates my ability to record what comes to my TV. "Copyright protection" is being pressed by folks selling fear and dread and is just a cover for their greed. The consumer's rights are being unfairly eliminated and restricted.